

1 - Lifelong Learning in France

- 1946 - Lifelong learning became an individual right
- 1971 – Lifelong learning in the labour legislation :
 - Every company is required to contribute towards Lifelong Learning
 - Creation of a new training market

3/9

1 – Lifelong learning for what?

- Employees' upskilling
- Keeping workers in employment
- Job seekers employability
- Professional development and social ladder

4/9

1 – Who for ?

- > young people who have left education for more than 2 years
- > employed individuals
- > self-employed individuals
- > job seekers

5/9

1 - How?

- Financed by:
 - > Employer's contribution (mainly)
 - > Government contribution
 - > Local Authorities contributions
 - > Self financing
- Provided by
 - > Lifelong learning organisations
 - > Private schools
 - > Research laboratories
 - > Companies
 - ...

6/9

2 – Applying for the Blue Biotechnology Master as part of a Lifelong learning programme

The Blue Biotechnology Master is open to

- Employed individuals
- Self employed individuals
- Job seekers

for

- The entire Master's course
- or
- One or several modules of the Master's course

7/9

3. La Rochelle Lifelong Learning department: what do we offer ?

- Our job is to
 - > Welcome, give information and help our clients to find the course that suits their needs.
 - > Advise companies on their financial obligations regarding staff training
 - > Provide support for university teaching staff with adult learning projects.
 - > Identified skill gaps in the workplace
 - > Set up partnerships with our national job center and job agency

8/9

4- Lifelong Learning department and Blue Biotechnology Master's project

- 1: Promote blue biotech master to French biotechnology companies
- 2: Communicate on blue biotech master in highlighting its lifelong learning accessibility
- 3: Provide information and advise employers and employees interested in this Master's
- 4: To help registered Lifelong Learning students with their applications for financial aids.